

INCLUSIVE COMMUNITIES

Omaha Table Talk: Our Community— Immigrants, Refugees & Omaha

Tuesday, November 18th from 6:00 pm—8:30 pm

Hosted at: University of Nebraska at The Barbara Weitz Community Engagement Center
6001 Dodge Street, OPPD Dialogue Room

Free Parking available in Parking Lot E, in front of the UNO Bell Tower

On November 18th, Inclusive Communities will host its monthly Omaha Table Talk. Through panel discussions and small group facilitations, participants will explore how immigration and refugee status impacts all of our lives in Omaha.

In Partnership With:

Omaha Table Talk is a program of Inclusive Communities. This event is free and open to the public; all interested parties are invited to take part in open and honest dialogues about their ideas and beliefs associated with race, faith, gender, and all forms diversity. Light snacks and refreshments will be provided.

AA/EEO Institution. For special needs or assistance please call/contact Emilio Herrera at eherrera@inclusive-communities.org. The Barbara Weitz Community Engagement Center is a wheelchair accessible building.

For more information regarding Inclusive Communities or our Omaha Table Talk programming, please visit www.inclusive-communities.org.