

Bulletin Announcement

Come to OTOC Accountability Session with OPPD Candidates on April 18

OTOC will hold an accountability session with candidates for OPPD Board of Directors, Sub District 5 which is Central and Northwest Omaha. Join us Monday, April 18 at 7:00 p.m. at St. Leo Catholic Church (102nd & Blondo) in the Fireside Room. Learn about why each candidate is running and how they see their responsibility to the public, their thoughts about reducing green house gas emissions, the Board's recent decision to increase OPPD's monthly fixed service charges and other topics related to OPPD's impact on our environment and community. All six candidates have been invited to participate.

Story for Newsletters

OTOC will hold an accountability session with candidates for OPPD Board of Directors, Sub District 5 which is Central and Northwest Omaha. OPPD is an essential part of our community and the decisions of the Board have an impact on virtually every household in our region. Come to find out more about OPPD and the candidates in this very important election.

Join OTOC on Monday, April 18 at 7:00 p.m. at St. Leo Catholic Church (102nd & Blondo) in the Fireside Room.

Learn about:

- why each candidate is running;
- how OPPD could continue to reduce their emission of green house gasses to help reduce climate change;
- what each candidate thinks of the OPPD Board's recent decision to increase the fixed monthly service charge from $10.25 to $30 per month;
- how they would approach the financial challenges facing OPPD and electric utilities today;
- how they would balance their responsibility to OPPD management, the public they are elected to represent and to all OPPD rate payers;
- and other topics related to OPPD's impact on our environment and community. All six candidates have been invited to participate.